'Mt. Vernon' Dress

History

What is Mt. Vernon?

Mt. Vernon was the famous family home of General George Washington. It originally belonged to his older brother, but passed to Washington on his death. George Washington lived at Mt. Vernon for 45 years and spent his last days there.

Fashion

This dress was inspired by a costume seen in the recent period film 'The Duchess'. It is very similar to what would have been worn by middle and upper class women during the American Revolution.
